Absence from Examinations

Applications for re-examination due to absence from the specified examination dates will not be approved.

Only In extreme cases (e.g. hospitalization, representation of Cyprus abroad), a special purpose committee will examine the relevant applications. Applications are submitted, together with supporting documents, to Office 36 in Nicosia and the Studies Office in Limassol. Applications will be accepted at most three days after the examination date for which the student did not attend. Students that have an examination the last day of the examination period (9th of June), must submit their application for re-examination together with supporting documents, the latest by Friday, 10th of June.

In case the said Committee approves the application, re-examinations will take place on Monday, 13th of June and on Tuesday, 14th of June 2016 for graduating students and in September for the remaining students.
